Policy Statement

1. Procurement Services implements a variety of acquisition/sourcing processes to facilitate efficient, cost-effective procurement of goods and services to support the teaching, research, and administrative missions of the university, emphasizing competitive costing and high ethical practices. Although Indiana University promotes competitive bidding, the determination of which process to employ includes consideration of the anticipated cost of the good or service, the university’s ability to leverage existing contractual relationships, and other factors specific to the situation.

2. Purchases of material significance require administrative reporting for compliance with federal and state regulations as well as fiduciary responsibility to the university and the taxpayers of the state of Indiana.

Reason For Policy

To identify procurement mechanisms available for securing timely delivery of goods and services for the university at the most cost-effective price, based on competition among suppliers and implementation of ethical business practices with all parties, and to provide transparency and oversight of significant purchases.

Procedure

1. Competitive bidding and price thresholds
   a. Single transactions under $10,000 need not be bid.
   b. Except as provided in FIN-PURCH-04, transactions exceeding $10,000 shall be competitively bid by the Procurement Services staff.
1. For awards over $10,000 through $50,000, Purchasing will determine the competitive process to be used and will manage that process.
2. For awards greater than $50,000 up to $250,000, a structured competitive process ("RFP", "RFQ") will be utilized.
3. In limited circumstances, transactions greater than $50,000 and under $250,000 may be approved to be placed without competitive pricing pursuant to FIN-PURCH-04, sole-source purchases, which requires significant documentation and review detailing the circumstances surrounding the transaction.
