Procedure

Observed holidays, eligibility, and accruals

   a. If a legal holiday falls on a Sunday, the holiday is observed on Monday immediately following the holiday.
   b. If a legal holiday falls on a Saturday, the holiday is observed on Friday immediately preceding the holiday.
   c. The Campus Holiday is either a “floating holiday” that may be taken starting on March 1 of each year or a designated date determined by the executive leadership at each campus.
      1. The “floating” Campus Holiday is taken on a workday of the employee’s choice, provided the employee has prior supervisory approval.
      2. The Campus Holiday must be taken by the end of the last full pay period of the following calendar year, or it is forfeited.

2. Eligibility for the holiday.
   a. On the day the university observes the holiday, a staff employee must be in active status 50% FTE or greater (employee status “A” in HRMS), or

   c. Terminated (T) or Retired (R). See HR-10-40, Voluntary and Involuntary Separation.

4. Employees hired or returning from a leave of absence on the day following a holiday do not accrue the holiday.

5. Appointments and separations should not occur on the day when a holiday is observed. This does not apply to the March 1 accrual date for the Campus Holiday.

6. Employees who work alternative work schedules, such as four ten-hour days, will receive eight (8) hours of pay for a holiday. Non-Exempt staff employees must cover the other hours with time-off benefits, make up the time within the same workweek with supervisory approval, or take time off without pay and benefit accruals (ABS).

7. Staff employees who accrue time off as compensation for a worked holiday must select a mutually agreeable time-off date with the supervisor, which does not create an undue hardship on the department.
   a. Non-Exempt staff must use the time off by the end of the last full pay period in December of the following calendar year, or it is forfeited.
   b. Exempt staff must take the time off by the end of December of the following calendar year, or it is forfeited.
